Skate With Santa on Christmas Eve at the Saranac Lake Civic Center - Event Sponsored by Moose Lodge #457

Saranac Lake, NY — The holiday spirit will be in full swing this Christmas Eve as the Saranac Lake Civic Center hosts its annual “Skate With Santa” event, proudly sponsored by the Saranac Lake Moose Lodge #457. Families, friends, and community members of all ages are invited to lace up their skates and enjoy a festive morning filled with cheer, music, and a special appearance by Santa Claus himself who may be joined by a special guest.

This beloved community tradition offers free public skating alongside Santa. It continues to grow each year thanks to the dedication of local partners and supporters who believe in creating joyful experiences for families during the holiday season.

This year, the Civic Center extends heartfelt gratitude to the members of the Moose Lodge #457, whose ongoing generosity has played a vital role in supporting community programs and events. Their continued commitment helps ensure that holiday traditions like Skate with Santa remain accessible and memorable for everyone in Saranac Lake.

“The Moose Lodge is thrilled to once again support this wonderful community event,” said Andrea Hurteau-Barry of the Saranac Lake Moose Lodge. “Skate With Santa brings families together in the true spirit of the season, and we are proud to help make that possible with the Civic Center.”

Event Details:

- Date: December 24 (Christmas Eve)
- Location: Saranac Lake Civic Center
- Time: 9:30-11am
- Reservation: skaters must reserve a spot at saranaclakeciviccenter.org/skating
