Start Thanksgiving Morning on the Ice at the Saranac Lake Civic Center

Community skating sponsored by Hyde Fuel offers a fun way to kick off the holiday

SARANAC LAKE, N.Y. — Before the turkey goes in the oven and Thanksgiving festivities get underway, the Saranac Lake Civic Center is inviting the community to lace up their skates and enjoy some time on the ice.

Hyde Fuel is sponsoring a special Thanksgiving morning public skating session on Thursday, November 26, from 9:30–11:00 a.m., welcoming skaters of all ages and abilities to come together and enjoy a little holiday fun.

Whether it's a family tradition, a chance to get the kids out of the house, or simply an opportunity to catch up with friends and neighbors, Thanksgiving morning skating offers a relaxed way to start the holiday with a little activity and community connection.

“Thanksgiving is a time for family, friends, and community, and we love supporting opportunities that bring people together,” said Arlene Cowan of Hyde Fuel. “We hope families and friends will make skating part of their Thanksgiving morning tradition and enjoy a little time together before the day's celebrations begin. We're happy to help make that possible for our community.”

Public skating opportunities will continue throughout Thanksgiving weekend, thanks to the generous support of Hudson Headwaters Health Network, the Village of Saranac Lake Cannabis Tax Grant, and the Cloudsplitter Foundation. Their support helps keep the ice accessible and provides additional opportunities for families and community members to enjoy the Civic Center during the holiday season.

All are welcome to attend. Pre-registration is required for each skating session. Skate rentals are available through the Civic Center Pro Shop for $6 per pair.
